Interesting News From Sexsmith

Vol. III, No. 31 By R. A. MACLEOD January 22, 1935

HOCKEY BOYS EXPRESS THEIR APPRECIATION

The young Sexsmith hockey boys, who travelled to Grande Prairie last Friday, wish to take this opportunity to express their appreciation of the courtesy and hospitality shown them by Mr. Bert Beasant, Father Shalla and Father McGuire.

IT'S UP TO YOU

Hey, fellow, what are you going to do about pushing this good little town and community along through the year 1935?

Yes, we mean YOU.

But what can I do? you enquire.

Listen, fellow, here's a lot of good tips.

1. Keep right on working.

2. Keep up the old fight, the right spirit.

3. Be pleasant and agreeable to friends, neighbors, acquaintances, customers—everybody.

4. Convince yourself there's something good left in the old world after all—that there's plenty worth while stuff ahead for you to dig and delve and work and strive.

5. And, when you put the old home town down on your list as No. 1. Remember that the Sexsmith business men and professional men pay taxes here, support our churches, schools and other institutions. They are the folks who do things for you—the outside dealer does NOTHING.

6. And it's well to know that it costs a dollar or two to drive a car ten or fifteen miles or take a train and return. This is a hard fact, and any "bargain" you buy away from home has to be at least one or two dollars cheaper than the one you buy here, or Normen, or Mack, or John, or Bub, or Jim, or any of the business men who run our business throughfare sell it, before it is a bargain.

BUY AT HOME, that's what to do.

LITTLE SMOKY

(Received by Friday's Mail)

What a wonderful bird is that old smoky.

He stopped in High Prairie town.

For And at the Paulson hospital left a wee boy.

Mr. and Mrs. George White.

We have not heard, but we're quite sure they think he is just all right.

A great piece of news we have to tell.

She has been away for over three months.

And for her presence here we all have yearned.

We noticed Fred Freshborn passing by.

A-hiking down the road.

Where he was going we do not know.

His overcoat was his entire load.

The club's meeting was held down at Mrs. Ray's.

And—she always is—she was.

The most perfect hostess in the world.

And why not? We were a good cause.

WAPITI NEWS

WAPITI, Jan. 17.—Mr. Eric Berg left last Tuesday to resume his studies in Grande Prairie.

The cold weather still persists.

Mr. and Mrs. Westhead have mistaken this country for the North Pole.

If this keeps up we'll have to change to Snows, Alberta rather than Sunny.

The Wapiti community extends its deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland in the sad loss of Mr. Sutherland's father, who died in the Grande Prairie Municipal Hospital last Wednesday morning after a long illness.

One of our local boys, Master Jack Riegs, has left to become one of the "Husky Kennedys" in the army.

They are to be seen in shortly. Come on Wapiti folks, and patronize home talent.

Seen and Heard at the Crossroads.

Mr. Vic Elford wending his way northward and rendering "O Sole Mio" at the top of his voice. What a little thing like 50 below to Vic?

Hans deciding it wasn't so very very cold.

Tom Watson declaring its going to chink tomorrow (or, anyway, the next day) for sure.

COLD WEATHER IN EUROPE

Transportation Paralyzed And Much Suffering Reported

LONDON. Bitter winter weather crippled many parts of Europe, bringing distress to shipping, paralyzing communications and visiting acute hardship on the poor.

The possibility that continuation of severe temperatures would produce an improvement in the European demand for wheat was seen here by Andrew Cairns, Canadian secretary of the international wheat conference.

Such a condition, Cairns said, would tend to cancel the effects of favorable weather during December, which brought good pasturage for most European areas and small demand for foreign grain.
